Three / four bedroom semi-detached home with downstairs showroom and a large garden with home office, close to Redbourn village amenities and transport.

Description

This three-bedroom semi-detached family home offers generous and versatile living space, with the added benefit that one of the downstairs reception rooms can be used as a fourth bedroom if required. There are three reception rooms in total, two of which feature French doors opening directly onto the garden, providing plenty of natural light and easy access to outdoor space. The property also includes a spacious kitchen fitted with integrated appliances and ample storage, along with a convenient downstairs tiled shower room. Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms arranged around a central landing, along with a modern family bathroom featuring both a bath and a separate shower cubicle. Outside, the property benefits from a large well maintained rear garden with a separate spacious home office with electricity, providing a useful space for working from home. To the front there is a driveway with parking for two cars, in addition to on-street parking.

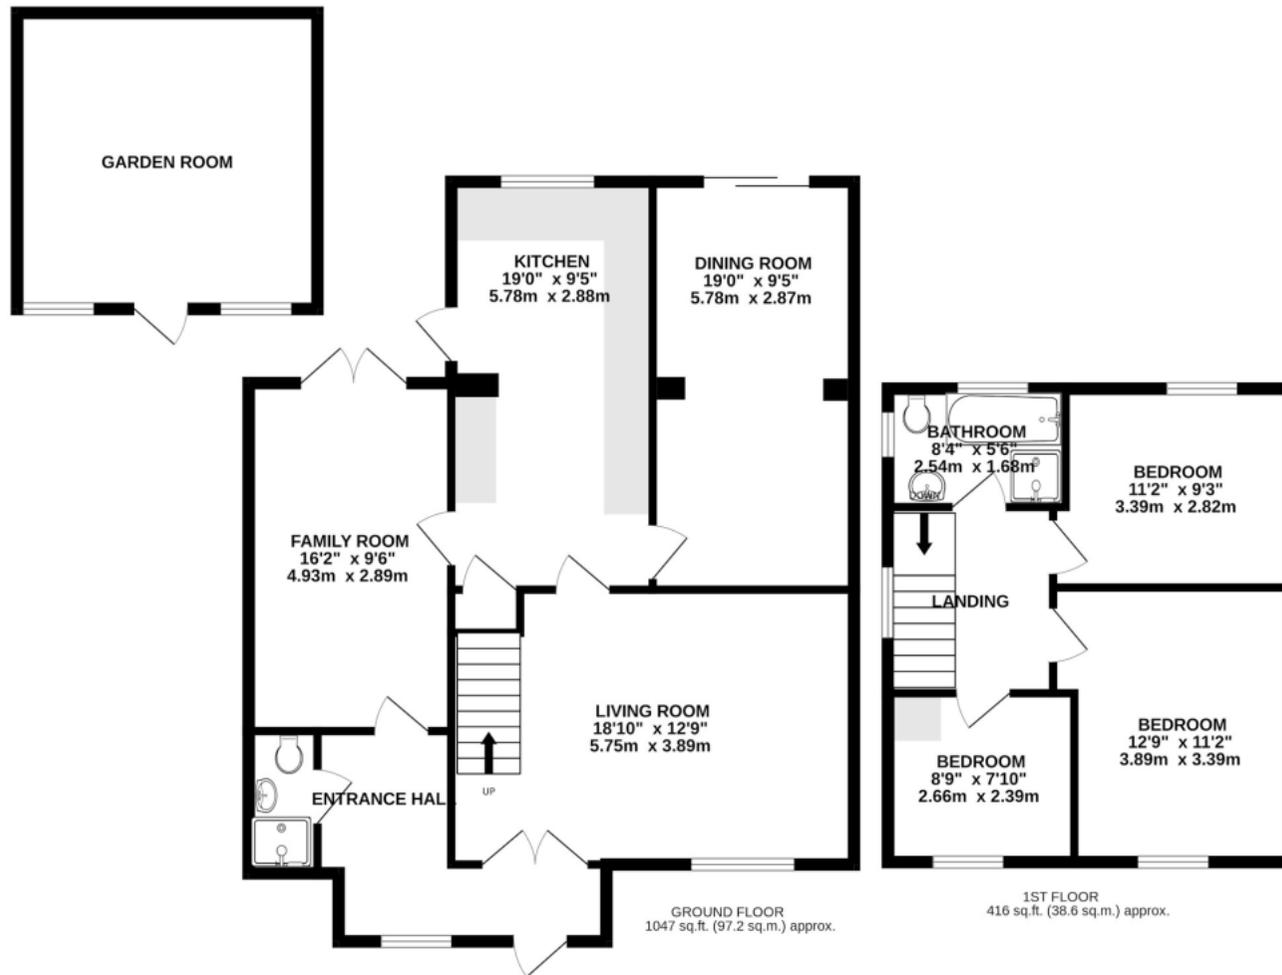

Location

Snatchup is situated within Redbourn, a popular Hertfordshire village, close to the Common and walking distance to the well regarded Redbourn JMI School and The High Street amenities.
