A beautifully presented 3-bedroom family home with 2 reception rooms, garden, and within walking distance to central Harpenden.

Description

A beautifully presented, light-filled three-bedroom mid-terraced family home arranged over three floors with well-balanced and flexible living space. The ground floor includes a spacious entrance hall, cloakroom, and integral garage. At the rear, a versatile family room with storage opens via double doors onto a courtyard garden, with access to a peaceful communal garden. The first floor boasts a bright lounge and a newly fitted kitchen with integrated appliances, ample workspace, and a larder. The top floor has three well-proportioned bedrooms; the principal bedroom at the front with fitted wardrobes, and two further bedrooms at the rear with garden views. A modern bathroom with a shower cubicle completes this level. The home features high ceilings and roof windows enhancing the bright feel. Externally, the property offers a driveway with parking for two vehicles and an EV charging point.

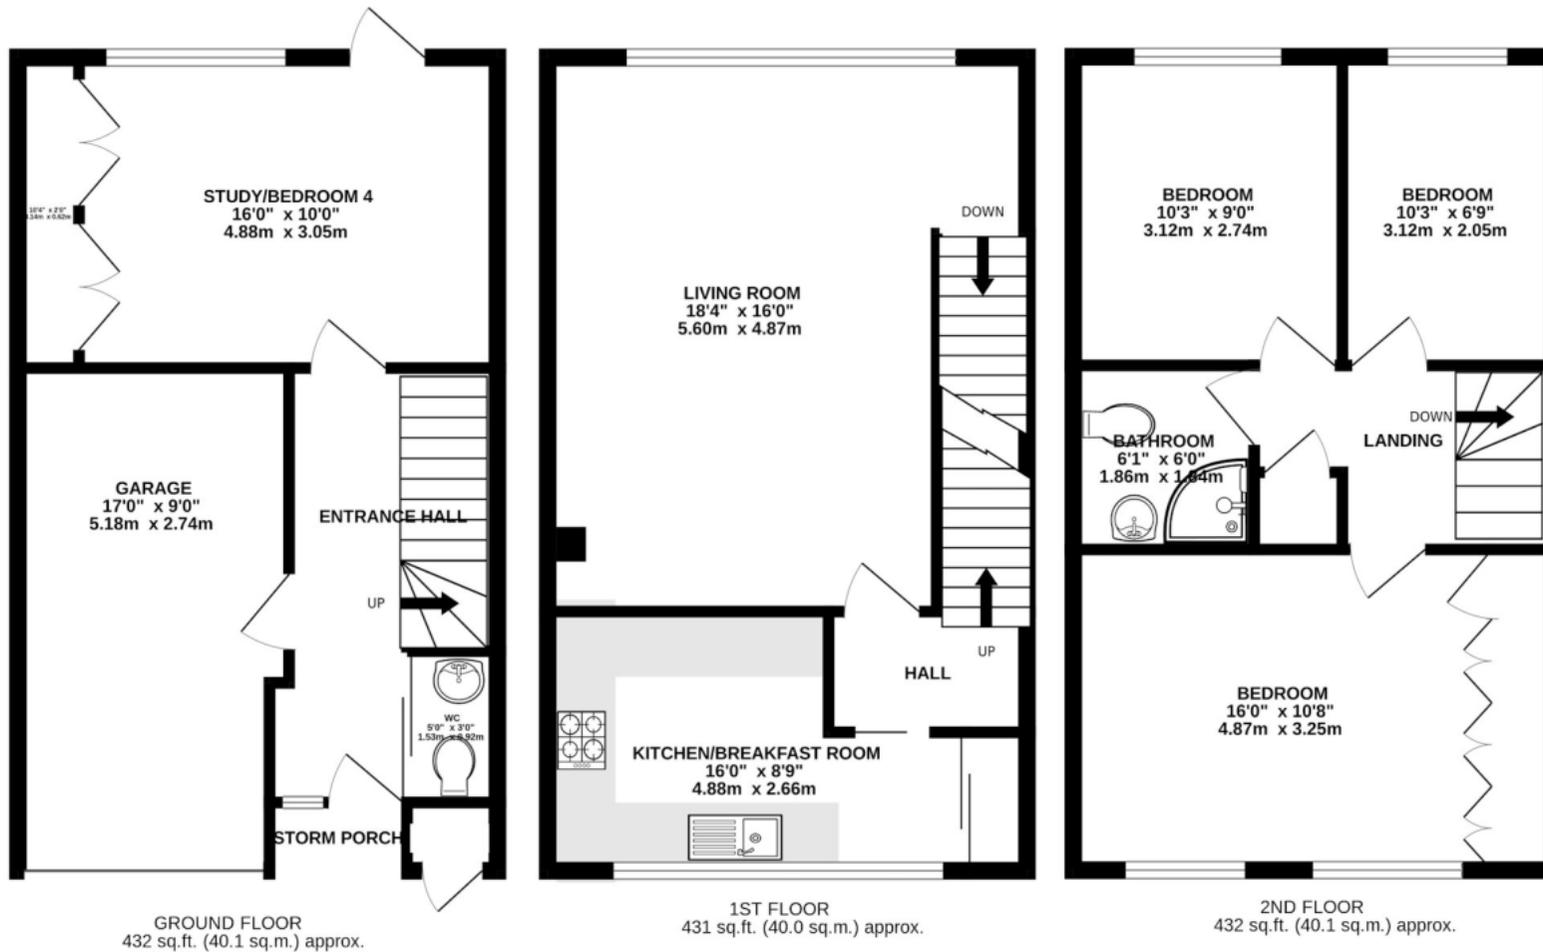

Location

Haddon Court is a tranquil, desirable development in leafy grounds, near popular schooling. A short walk to Harpenden town centre, offering shops, restaurants, and the mainline railway station for central London access in around thirty minutes.
