Rarely available 3-bed link-detached bungalow, 1,000 sq ft, on private road with countryside views, W-facing garden, and large garage.

Description

Occupying a generous plot on a quiet private road in the popular Jersey Farm development, this three-bedroom link-detached bungalow offers well-balanced accommodation. The property boasts an attractive layout with an 18ft lounge/dining room perfect for relaxing and entertaining, a well-appointed kitchen, and three bedrooms. Benefits include double glazing throughout and potential for extension or reconfiguration (subject to consents). Externally, enjoy beautifully maintained secluded front and rear gardens, a garage to the side, and additional off-street parking. Located on Villiers Crescent, it is walking distance to local amenities like shops, doctors, dentists, and a pub. The area is well connected by public transport, offering access to the city centre and Thameslink station. This represents a superb opportunity to acquire a well-positioned home in a desirable residential setting.

Location

This property is located in the popular and peaceful Jersey Farm, just a short drive from the city centre and mainline station. A local parade of shops and regular bus routes offer easy access to St. Albans City centre.
