Charming 3-bed character home with off-street parking and garden in Markyate village heart.

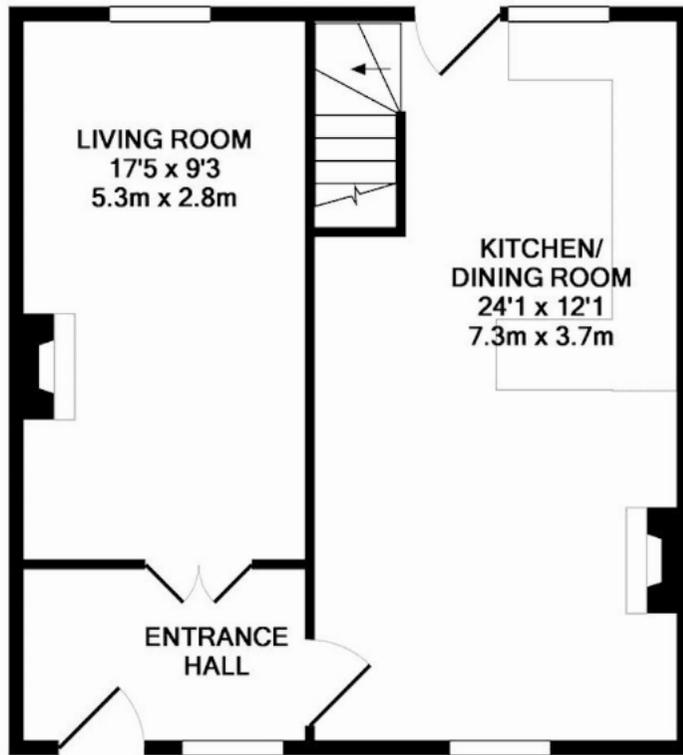

Description

This delightful pre-Georgian end of terrace home boasts a wealth of period features and has been recently renovated. The spacious rooms are light and airy, featuring high ceilings and attractive sash windows. A large living room with open fireplace overlooks the rear courtyard. The fabulous kitchen/dining room has been lovingly refitted with stylish units and quality appliances, including an integrated microwave, dishwasher, wine cooler, and a Range Cooker. The dining area has a feature fireplace and large sash window with views to the front. Upstairs, there are three double bedrooms served by a modern bathroom with a freestanding roll-top bath and large shower cubicle. Outside, the rear courtyard features two outhouses, one with an outside tap and power, and two sheds. Side access leads to the front. Across the road, there is off-street parking for three cars, and steps lead up to a private garden, fully fenced, laid to lawn and measuring approximately 50ft in length.
