Owned by Hatfield Park Estate, Corner House is a Grade II listed historic country property in the hamlet of West End, Hertfordshire.

Description

Beautifully renovated six years ago, this perfect four-bedroom family home blends period features with modern amenities across three floors. It boasts a spacious family kitchen with Aga, stone and timber floors, underfloor heating, a log burner, and BT Broadband. There are three bathrooms, including one en-suite. Outside, Corner House features a large garden with distant views, primarily lawned with mature trees and flower beds. Included is a detached garage and log store. Tenants of Hatfield Park at Corner House are eligible for free membership of Friends of the Park. More information: <http://www.hatfield-house.co.uk/friends-of-hatfield-park/>

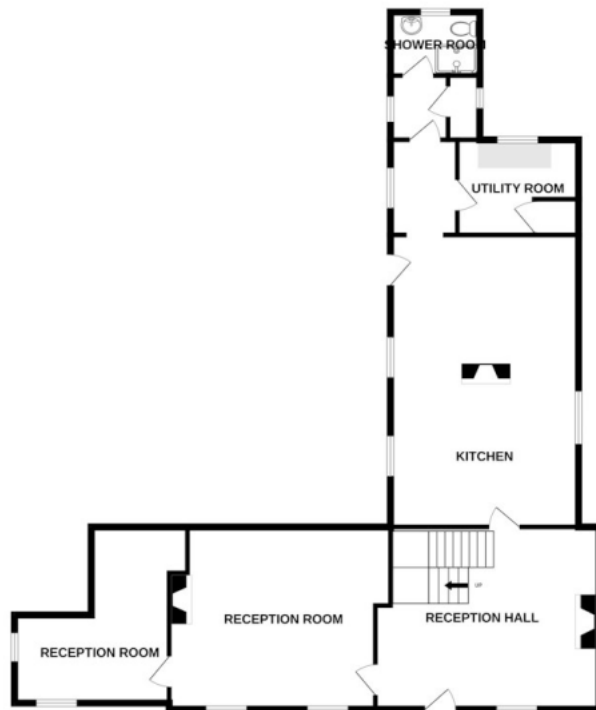

Location

The property is ideally located in a secluded yet convenient area, with easy access to local amenities, the A1(M), and mainline rail stations. It boasts views over attractive rolling countryside between Essendon Conservation Area and Hatfield Park.
